Jennie is a private midwife at the Holistic Birthing Centre in Northwich, Cheshire, who believes passionately in the rights of parents to choose the type of pregnancy and birth experience they wish. She provides individualised holistic midwifery care, including complementary therapies, to pregnant clients who have opted to have their babies at home, in the Holistic Birthing Centre or in a local hospital. She offers reflexology, aromatherapy, massage, moxibustion and hypnosis for pregnancy, birth and early motherhood, both in the Holistic Birthing Centre and in the mother's own home. The Holistic Birthing Centre also offers counselling and life coaching, reiki, emotional freedom technique, and classes including newborn fitness, pregnancy pilates, yoga, active birth workshops and baby massage.
